

TRUE OR FALSE?

For each of the following questions, write T (for True) or F (for False) in the space provided.

  T   Henry VIII belonged to the Tudor family.

  F   While Henry attended school, he was a poor student.
Henry began school at the age of three and was considered quite smart in a wide variety of subjects.

  T   Growing up, Henry enjoyed all kinds of sports like archery, tennis, and especially jousting.

  T   At the age of eighteen Henry married Catherine of Aragon (his first wife) and shortly after was crowned king of England.

  F   As king of England, Henry lived a simple life.
As king, Henry enjoyed the wealth and pomp of noble life: he dressed extravagantly, ate sumptuous meals (each having at least thirteen courses!), gave many lavish parties, and owned over seventy assorted palaces, castles, and estates.

  F   Even though Henry was famous for having six wives, he had no children.
Henry had three children in all: Edward VI, Mary, and Elizabeth I.
