ESSAY QUESTION

Take 20 minutes to answer one of these questions.

1. Write an expository essay explaining ways in which the Age of Reason challenged the traditional Christian understanding of man's sources of knowledge, the nature of the universe, and the character of God.
2. The nursery rhyme "Rock-a-Bye, Baby" was written at the time of the Glorious Revolution:

Rock-a-bye, baby, on the treetop,
When the wind blows, the cradle will rock;
When the bough breaks, the cradle will fall,
And down will come baby, cradle and all.

In a narrative essay, explain how this "children's song" is actually a subversive political statement by connecting the details of the song to the events leading up to the revolution.
