

SHORT ANSWER

Take 20 minutes to answer these questions.

NOTE: Because of the range of threads covered in this week-plan, this quiz includes only short answer questions. Be sure to take extra care answering the ones that ask you to identify a person or give the significance of an event.

1. Name the three great absolutist rulers of the eighteenth century that we focused on this week, as well as which countries they ruled.
2. Which of these rulers was known for piety and religious faith?
3. Which of these rulers precipitated a major international war, and how did it start?
4. Which of these rulers was not expected to be a major governing force by the rest of Europe? Why?
5. What was Voltaire most known for?
6. Who was Robert Walpole?
7. Who was James Oglethorpe?
8. Name two ways in which the founding of Georgia was unique among the thirteen colonies.
9. Name the three international wars that we studied this week, giving the European and the American names for each of them.
10. The affair of Jenkins's ear brought England and her colonies into which of these wars?
11. Which of these wars began in America in response to Indian raids?
12. Which of these wars was ended by the treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle?
13. In which of these wars did Britain make major territorial gains? Where were most of these gains located?
14. Which of these wars ended with all colonial territories reverting to their previous holders?
15. What seeds of discontent among the colonists were sown by these wars?