

Write the letter of the following definitions beside the appropriate term.

- |                                                                                  |                 |       |                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | 1. epic         | _____ | A the pattern of events, or main story in a narrative or drama                                                                       |
|  | 2. satire       | _____ | B the leading character, hero, or heroine of a drama or other literary work                                                          |
|  | 3. protagonist  | _____ | C the events following the climax of a drama or novel in which loose ends are wrapped up                                             |
|  | 4. plot         | _____ | D the repetition of the beginning sounds of words                                                                                    |
|  | 5. alliteration | _____ | E a technique of indicating an intention or attitude opposite to that which is actually or ostensibly stated                         |
|  | 6. antagonist   | _____ | F a long poetic composition, usually centered upon a hero, in which a series of achievements or events is narrated in elevated style |
|                                                                                  | 7. denouement   | _____ | G a figure of speech in which two unlike things are explicitly compared, using the words "like" or "as"                              |
|                                                                                  | 8. exposition   | _____ | H a literary composition, in verse or prose, in which human folly and vice are held up to scorn, derision, or ridicule               |
|                                                                                  | 9. simile       | _____ | I the adversary of the hero or heroine of a drama or other literary work                                                             |
|                                                                                  | 10. irony       | _____ | J dialogue, description, or other explanations that give the reader the background of characters and the present situation           |

