

Your student has been instructed to write the letter of the following definitions beside the appropriate term. Correct answers are provided below.

- |  |                 |          |  |
|--|-----------------|----------|--|
|    | 1. epic         | F | A the pattern of events, or main story in a narrative or drama   |
|    | 2. satire       | H | B the leading character, hero, or heroine of a drama or other literary work  |
|    | 3. protagonist  | B | C the events following the climax of a drama or novel in which loose ends are wrapped up   |
|    | 4. plot         | A | D the repetition of the beginning sounds of words  |
|    | 5. alliteration | D | E a technique of indicating an intention or attitude opposite to that which is actually or ostensibly stated                         |
|  | 6. antagonist   | I | F a long poetic composition, usually centered upon a hero, in which a series of achievements or events is narrated in elevated style |
|  | 7. denouement   | C | G a figure of speech in which two unlike things are explicitly compared, using the words "like" or "as"                              |
|  | 8. exposition   | J | H a literary composition, in verse or prose, in which human folly and vice are held up to scorn, derision, or ridicule               |
|  | 9. simile       | G | I the adversary of the hero or heroine of a drama or other literary work   |
|  | 10. irony       | E | J dialogue, description, or other explanations that give the reader the background of characters and the present situation           |

