

TRUE OR FALSE?

For each question, write T (for True) or F (for False) in the space provided.

1. _____ The Renaissance began in the early 1300's in England.
2. _____ A patron is a wealthy person or family who financially supports the arts or particular artists by buying and commissioning art work.
3. _____ Lorenzo de' Medici was the powerful banker and lover of art who started a special school for sculptors in Florence.
4. _____ Da Vinci was famous for sculpting such masterpieces as the Pieta and David.
5. _____ During Columbus' time, Spain and France were two rival countries with the most powerful fleets that ruled the seas.
6. _____ King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain sponsored Columbus' expedition across the Atlantic.
7. _____ The three ships that Columbus used for his expedition were the Niña, the Pinta, and the Saint Christopher.
8. _____ Francis Drake was an English adventurer who challenged Spanish dominion of the seas and raided many of Spain's ships.
9. _____ Montezuma was a king of the Aztec empire.
10. _____ Machu Picchu was a beautiful Aztec city carved into the side of a mountain.
11. _____ In the Renaissance time, there was little difference in the homes of the wealthy as compared to the homes of ordinary people.
12. _____ While meditating on different portions of God's Word, Martin Luther realized that salvation was not possible through any works he did but through faith in Christ's work done for him on the cross.
13. _____ Martin wrote ninety-five concerns about the wrong teachings of the church. They were called the Ninety-Five Theses.
14. _____ William of Orange, a nobleman who ruled over the northern provinces of the Netherlands, was also known as William the Proud.
15. _____ Inquisitors were men sent by the emperor Philip II to ask the Dutch people about how to make dikes and windmills.